MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Comments by ADDP about CSR Course

1. Following his presentation in CSR Course No. 46 and just before the appearance of the ADDP on 14 April, [REDACTED] took me aside and said that [REDACTED] had expressed some concern about the CSR and the type of students that were attending. As you know, [REDACTED] substituted for Helms in the CSR in the so-called final DDP Seminar. To my knowledge, this is the first time that he has done so. In briefing [REDACTED] had gone over the list of questions handed in by the students which form the basis of the presentation. In looking over both the questions and the list of students, [REDACTED] noted that there were some questions of a "policy" nature concerning the DDP that he considered inappropriate to discuss in a group which included persons from non-CS elements.

2. [REDACTED] said that he wanted to discuss the matter of mixed enrollment in future courses personally with C/OS/TR and me, but was inclined to think that the non-CS personnel could have their training requirements satisfied by enrolling in other courses besides the CSR. In addition, [REDACTED] felt that certain CS speakers would be more informative if they knew that the class was made up only of those who were assigned to their component. Although there are other considerations involved, I believe this merits our immediate attention since the ADDP has raised the issue.
